

Infant Sign Language

Signing is a unique way to communicate with babies before they are able to speak words on their own – they will typically start producing the signs you’ve taught them around 8 to 9 months, providing nonverbal babies with a valuable communication tool. Here are the signs we are learning so you can practice at home.

Daddy

Diaper

Drink

Eat

Finished

Mommy

No

More

Sleep

Up

Yes

Down

Help

Good

Want

Stop

Please

Thank you

Waiting