Nimbus

Performance Installation by The Industry
Concept and Direction by Yuval Sharon
Music and Sound Design by Rand Steiger
Visual Realization by Patrick Shearn
Production Design by Ed Carlson and Danielle Kaufman Recorded performances by LA Phil musicians —
Martin Chalifour, violin
Robert DeMaine, cello
Marion Arthur Kuszyk, oboe
Boris Allakhverdyan, clarinet
Andrew Bain, horn
Thomas Hooten, trumpet

Kicking off a three-year LA Phil residency for director Yuval Sharon, Nimbus is an installation that transforms a transitional space into a performance site. The installation acts as a timepiece for Walt Disney Concert Hall as Rand Steiger's commissioned music changes over the course of the day, alternating between computer generated musical atmospheres and compositions built from material recorded by soloists from the Los Angeles Philharmonic. These pieces, spatially distributed over 32 speakers, alternate with periods of silence interrupted by brief related sounds triggered by motion sensors.

SONGBOOK
Walt Disney Concert Hall

Saturday, November 5, 2016, at 8 PM

An Evening with Joan Baez

LA Phil's Songbook series offers an intimate evening with legendary folk singer Joan Baez. A musical force of nature of incalculable influence, Baez marched on the front line of the civil rights movement with Martin Luther King, Jr., inspired Václav Havel in his fight for a Czech Republic, then 40 years later saluted the Dixie Chicks for protesting the Iraq war. Her earliest recordings fed traditional ballads into the rock vernacular before she introduced Bob Dylan to the world in 1963.

Kamasi Washington
The Langston Hughes Project
"Ask Your Mama: 12 Moods for Jazz"
Featuring the Ron McCurdy Quartet

Celebrated for such projects as his ambitious 172-minute masterpiece The Epic, young L.A. jazz giant Kamasi Washington combines influences like Coltrane along with soul, classical, hip-hop and gospel for a decidedly contemporary jazz perspective. Ask Your Mama takes the audience from gospel, blues and New Orleans to bebop and beyond with a multimedia performance of Langston Hughes' kaleidoscopic 12-part jazz poem about the struggle for freedom in the early '60s.

Alan Cumming Sings Sappy Songs

This legendary star of stage (Cabaret) and screen (The Good Wife), described by The New York Times as an "irresistible" and "bawdy countercultural sprite," delivers an emotional firestorm with a range of songs from Noel Coward and Rufus Wainwright to Sondheim and Annie Lennox.

Bedroom Community's Whale Watching Tour
featuring Valgeir Sigurðsson, Nico Muhly, Sam Amidon, Daníel Bjarnason, Nadia Sirota, Jodie Landau, James McVinnie and Sæunn Thorsteindóttir

Iceland's Jóhann Jóhannsson, nominated for two Oscars® for his scores for The Theory of Everything, and Sicario, is highly praised by pop music critics. This special show celebrates the release of a new record returning to the curiously wonderful dissonance between traditional instrumentation and electronics. To open, one of contemporary music's most compelling record labels, Reykjavík's Bedroom Community, marks its 10th anniversary with label founders Valgeir Sigurðsson and Nico Muhly, and others.

DakhaBrakha
Le Mystère des Voix Bulgares

Dressed in striking traditional costumes, the multi-instrumental quartet from Ukraine DakhaBrakha ("give/take" in Ukrainian) mixes Europe's folklore and rhythms with the urban avant-garde. Le Mystère des Voix Bulgares (The Mystery of Bulgarian Voices), the celebrated all-female folk choir, opens the evening with harmonies and arrangements that showcase the characteristic timbres and rhythms of traditional Bulgarian music.

John Pizzarelli Plays McCartney and the Beatles

Based on a suggestion from Sir Paul McCartney himself, John Pizzarelli uses his gracefully brilliant vocals and guitar playing backed by a strong quartet and horns – to mix McCartney's singular songs like "My Valentine," "Maybe I'm Amazed" and "No More Lonely Nights," with classic Beatles songs, all in swinging dimension with plenty of colorful touches and a playful wink.
