Keb' Mo': Bring it Home

Keb' Mo'

Grammy-winning country bluesman Keb' Mo' brings his soulful storytelling in this one-of-a-kind show. With a style that incorporates contemporary blues through rootsy folk, the reflective singer/songwriter released his first solo record in 1994, and six releases later, the L.A. native brings it home for an intimate performance at Walt Disney Concert Hall.

Charles Mingus' Epitaph Orchestra
Gunther Schuller, conductor

The legendary bass player's magnum opus "Epitaph" is performed by a stellar 31-piece orchestra. At its world premiere at Lincoln Center in 1989, The New York Times called it "the jazz event of the decade." This performance also premieres a previously-missing section from the piece.
