

Lauren Wildschut is currently the Academic Coordinator of the Monitoring and Evaluation Programme at CREST, Stellenbosch University where she is responsible for the Post Graduate Diploma, Masters and PhD in Evaluation Studies. She is also the Deputy Director of the Evaluation Research Agency (ERA) which has conducted evaluation studies in several African countries in both government and nongovernmental sectors for organisations such as Carnegie, Atlantic Philanthropy, Zenex and ELMA. Furthermore, she is the Director of the African Institute for ATLAS.ti (AIA) which aims to build a cadre of qualitative researchers across Africa who produce rigorous research utilising ATLAS.ti.