

47th EUROPEAN WADOKAI
CHAMPIONSHIPS

Bulletin

Skopje, Macedonia

November 12&13 2022

Dear Wado Friends!

I am very pleased to welcome all Wadokai Karate friends to the 47th FEW Wado-Kai European Championships. After 15 years we can welcome you in Macedonia again. We try to organize a high-quality event and be a good host for our guests. We believe that we have shown in previous competitions that Macedonia has excellent karatekas and great team spirit. This time we want to prove that we are just as good at organizing an event.

We hope that all members will accept our invitation to get here; we can make a great European Championships here in Capital of Macedonia Skopje.

We are looking forward to welcoming everyone in Macedonia.

Prof. Dr Jovan Lazarev

Chairman of the Organizing Committee

Organizer: Macedonian WadoKarateFederation

Date: 12-13 November (Saturday, Sunday) 9. 00AM

Venue: Sports Complex JANE SANDANSKI

Skopje, ASNOM Blvd 1

It has dimensions of 20x40m handball court and capacity of 1000 spectators

Execution: According to WKF rules.

Kumite categories:

In individual categories straight knock-out system with repackage, two third places. In team categories straight knock-out system, no repackage, two third places.

Kata categories:

The flag system will be used for judging. In individual categories straight knock-out system with repackage, two third places. In team categories straight knock-out system, no repackage, two third places.

There will be no kata categories with round robin

In 8-9 years old categories only Pinan Katas are allowed, the same kata is allowed in every round except the final and third-place playoff.

In 10-11 years old categories only Pinan Katas are allowed in the preliminary rounds. In the final and third-place play off the competitors can choose a Wado-kai Tokui Kata. Competitors must alternate between two katas and in the final or third-place playoff they have to perform a third (Tokui) kata.

From the 12-13 years old categories and above the execution will be according to WKF rules. Every round a different kata has to be performed.

Pinan katas are allowed.

Cadets, juniors, U21, seniors and veterans WKF rules.

Team Kata categories:

In a group 8-11 years only pinan katas are allowed in the preliminary rounds. The teams can perform the same kata in every preliminary round. For the final or third-place playoff a new kata must be performed.

In age group 12-15 years competitors have to alternate between two katas in preliminary rounds and have to perform a third kata in the final or third-place playoff. Pinan kata is not compulsory.

From age group 16-17 years and above the execution will be according to WKF rules. Every round a new kata has to be performed. Pinan katas are allowed.

Protective gear: According to WKF rules

The use of teeth protector, seiken-protector, shin bone protector and feet protector are compulsory in all categories.

In WKF categories both protectors are compulsory for women.

There are no brand restrictions, but protective gear must be WKF type.

The use of worn out protective gear is not allowed!

Candidate rules:

Every competitor can only engage in his/her respective agegroup. Exempt are competitors of the U21 and veteran categories, who can engage in +18 categories as well, and kata +16 years can engage in junior or U21 and senior categories (example Junior can also participate in Senior category; U21 can also participate in senior category).

A competitor in a given age group can only engage in one weight.

A country can nominate a maximum of 4 competitors in individual WKF categories (Cadets, juniors, U21 and seniors).

There is no limit in Children and Veterans categories.

In team categories a country can nominate two teams. Exempt are the +18 and veteran categories where only one team may be nominated from a country.
