Discipleship and Light of the World National Awards

Every year our archdiocese recognizes outstanding young people and adults for their achievements with the Discipleship and Light of the World National Awards. These awards highlight the outstanding works of our young people and those adults who dedicate their time and talents to the future of our Church. The Office of Education, Evangelization and Catechesis takes great pride in recognizing these young people and adults annually.

The awards will be presented at the annual Catholic Youth Encounter on April 26, 2020.

To make a nomination, please follow these steps:
