THE SAN ANTONIO MUSEUM OF ART IS...

WHERE EAST MEETS WEST AND ANCIENT MEETS MODERN.

OUR CITY'S CLASSROOM.

A PLACE OF WONDER AND DELIGHT.

CHANGING THE WORLD ONE MUSEUM VISITOR AT A TIME.

Dear Friends,

Director Katie Luber and Mayor Julián Castro celebrate the Festival of Eid on the grounds of the Museum, August 2013.

Our museum has arrived on the national stage.

Last year, we received a prestigious $500,000 grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. The grant supported hiring a Curator of American Art who also serves as Chief Curator, a position generously endowed by Marie Halff in honor of her late husband.

But it was not just a grant. It was a sign of our growing importance as an art museum, as well as recognition by the Mellon Foundation, one of the most distinguished supporters of the arts in America, of our potential to make a difference to our community. And serving our community we are.

We increased attendance by 29%, membership by 52%, and the number of students served by 35%. At the beginning of the 2013-14 school year, our custom School Partnership Program expanded from two to seven schools. This innovative and effective education program puts us squarely in the ranks of national museum leadership.

Last year, through twelve special exhibitions, we brought the world to San Antonio. From Pasión Popular: Spanish and Latin American Folk Art from the Cecere Collection to the Jameel Prize: Art Inspired by Islamic Tradition, from Aphrodite and the Gods of Love to Lethal Beauty: Samurai Weapons and Armor, our diverse exhibitions complemented the breadth of our collections, which span the globe and five thousand years of history.

With 467 programs and events including lectures, concerts, book seminars, and Art Parties, we lived our story of serving a diverse community. New for the youngest children: Art Crawl and Playdates. And with the publication of Black & Blanco! and Animal Amigos!, a collaboration with Trinity University Press and the San Antonio Public Library Foundation, we completed our series of five award-winning Arte Kids English/Spanish board books featuring works in the Museum's collections.

As attendance grew last year, we improved the visitor experience with a spiffed-up Great Hall, a prominent new Information Desk, and attractive directional signage and graphics. We also launched our ambassador program, a rotation of all staff—from Director to Administrative Assistant—to greet visitors during our busiest hours. The experience has proved equally valuable for staff as for visitors, as we learn firsthand who our visitors are and how we can serve them better.

Our mission to be a gathering place—a community art hub that is welcoming to all people—allows us to create a museum without walls that broadens perspectives through nationally and internationally important exhibitions. We improve the quality of life for our neighbors, our city, and our region. Our Museum is leading, and we are on the national stage for twenty-first century museums in America.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

Approximately 75 volunteers with the Junior League of San Antonio have assisted during First Sundays for Families throughout the year. Volunteers work together to assist children with art-making activities, greet patrons, and answer general museum questions. The Junior League of San Antonio is San Antonio's premier women's volunteer organization, where women work together to build a better community through leadership and community service.

NATIONAL CHARITY LEAGUE

National Charity League is a mother-daughter philanthropic organization that provides the Museum volunteer support for events throughout the year, such as First Sundays for Families, as well as administrative assistance.

YOUNG MEN'S SERVICE LEAGUE

Young Men's Service League is a non-profit organization that initiates and encourages young men and their mothers to pursue philanthropic involvement in their community and provides an opportunity to enhance mother/son relationships.

EXHIBITIONS

The vision and scholarship of our curators drives the Museum's ambitious exhibition schedule. It takes the whole Museum community to make it work: Development, Members, Donors, Registrar & Collections, Exhibits, Education, Marketing, Finance & Administration, Facilities & Security, the Museum Shop, Volunteers, and Docents. The San Antonio Museum of Art mounted twelve special exhibitions in the fiscal year and produced two traveling exhibitions that share our collections with other museums.

Rostros de Maria: The Virgin as Archetype and Inspiration -

August 18, 2012 – September 29, 2013 Golden Gallery Curator: Marion Oettinger

The Roman Catholic cult of Mary is deeply rooted in pre-Christian ritual associated with fertility, fecundity, maternity, nourishment, and other core human needs. Her presence in art has provided centuries of inspiration for believers throughout Latin America. This exhibition drew from the Museum's rich collection of Marian images to illustrate the genre's broad variation and demonstrate the agility of religious art to adjust to new times, places, and cultures.

Adad Hannah: Intimate Encounters

September 1 - December 30, 2012 Focus Gallery Curator: David Rubin

Canadian artist Adad Hannah stages photographs and video tableaux that reinterpret art-historical masterpieces. In the Museum's feature exhibition for Fotoseptiembre USA 2012, the artist exhibited projects created in response to an antique bust of Eros and Aphrodite, a painting of Adam and Eve by Albrecht Dürer, and a nude sculpture from Auguste Rodin's The Burghers of Calais. Hannah also selected a work from the Museum's collection as inspiration for a new series of photographs and videos, using volunteers from the San Antonio community as models.

Love in Three Capitals September 7 – December 9, 2012 Special Exhibition Gallery, Asian Art Curator: John Johnston

Three rival cities of Japan's Imperial Era—Edo, Osaka and Kyoto—were known respectively as the political, commercial, and cultural capitals. Each city had sprawling entertainment districts that included famous brothels, and the pleasures offered in each city were the subject of lively comparison. This exhibition focused on a rare complete set of twelve shunga prints by artist Okumura Masanobu (1686-1764) depicting sexual encounters in the pleasure quarters of the three capitals.

Aphrodite and the Gods of Love

September 15, 2012 – February 17, 2013 Cowden Gallery Project Director: Jessica Powers

This groundbreaking exhibition revealed the popular ancient goddess Aphrodite in her roles as instigator of sexual desire, patroness of brides, seafarers and warriors, agent of political harmony, adulterous seductress, and mother to mischievous Eros. The exhibition featured 125 statues, vases, terracotta and bronze figures, mirrors, and jewelry from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston's world-renowned Greek and Roman collection together with seven breathtaking works from the Museo Archeologico Nazionale in Naples. This was the first special exhibition focused on the art and culture of ancient Greece in the San Antonio Museum of Art's history.

Luminous Impressions: The Operatic and Fantasy Prints of Henri Fantin-Latour

January 12 - April 7, 2013 Focus Gallery Curator: Karen Baker

Ignace Henri Jean Théodore Fantin-Latour (1836-1904) exhibited opera-based lithographs in the Paris Salon of 1876 and considered his graphic work to be his greatest artistic achievement. Luminous Impressions featured a selection of over 40 Fantin-Latour lithographs from a collection of more than 150 images bequeathed to the Museum by the late Gilbert M. Denman, Jr. in 2005. The images include fantasies of sensuous beauties and nymphs, dreamy allegorical and mythological scenes, and homages to Wagner, Berlioz, Schumann, and Brahms.

Entombed Treasures: Funerary Art of Han Dynasty China

February 2 – April 11, 2013 Small Special Exhibitions Gallery Curators: Erin Keelin and John Johnston

Spiritual thought of the Han dynasty (206 BC-220 AD) emphasized the continuity between this life and the next: Tombs of the elite were stocked with everything the dead might need in the next world. Striking ceramic representations of the deceased's attendants, animals, homes, and granaries were among the objects that furnished the tombs. Bronze and earthenware tombware rarely on view from the Museum's collection illustrated the development of funerary objects—and aspects of daily life, art, and belief—over the course of this formative ancient dynasty.

SAMOMA artist Marily Lanfear with her work

Artists of SAMOMA from the SAMA Collection 🔺

February 9 - May 26, 2013 Contemporary Galleries Curator: David Rubin

When local exhibition space for contemporary art was scarce, Norman Rene Avila, Donjon Evans, and George Horner formed the San Antonio Museum of Modern Art (SAMOMA), presenting exhibitions, performances, lectures, and film screenings from 1976-79. The space quickly became a gathering place for local artists and their followers. This exhibition featured limited-edition prints created by SAMOMA artists in 1979 and pieces by artists who exhibited at SAMOMA and subsequently had their work collected by the Museum: Judy Bankhead, Ron Binks, Rolando Briseño, Larry Graeber, Jim Harter, Marilyn Lanfear, Henry Stein, Kathy Vargas, Robert Willson, and Gene Elder. The Jameel Prize: Art Inspired by Islamic Tradition ▼ May 24 - August 11, 2013 Small Special Exhibitions Gallery Project Director: David Rubin

Leading curators, artists, and cultural figures around the world were invited to nominate candidates for the biennial Jameel Prize, an international award for contemporary artists inspired by Islamic traditions of art, craft, and design. This exhibition of the ten finalists included works that range from sculptural installations and digital collages to mirror mosaic and textiles. All broaden the dialogue about tradition and contemporary practice in Islamic cultures. The exhibition was organized by the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, in partnership with Abdul Latif Community Initiatives.

Pasión Popular: Spanish and Latin American Folk Art from the

Cecere Collection (see image, p. 12) April 6, 2013 – August 18, 2013 Cowden Gallery Curator: Marion Oettinger

In the most important addition to the Museum's folk art collection since the Rockefeller/Winn donations of 1985, approximately 300 works of Spanish and Latin American folk art were recently donated by collector and folk art specialist Peter P. Cecere. Pasión Popular showcased Cecere's diversity and range in an exhibition of approximately 200 objects, dating from the eighteenth century to modern times. The objects were skillfully crafted of wood, cloth, metal, clay, tar, and stone, and their sizes varied from small to monumental. They were grouped into categories that bespoke their function—devotional, utilitarian, recreational, and decorative.

Danny Lyon: The Bikeriders

September 7 – December 1, 2013 Small Special Exhibitions Gallery Curator: David Rubin

One year before the release of the classic film Easy Rider, Danny Lyon published The Bikeriders, featuring an iconic series of photographs taken from 1963–67. Lyon's then-uncommon approach was to photograph his subjects from the inside, rather than simply being an observer. In 1963, Lyon joined the Chicago Outlaws Motorcycle Club, becoming friends with his subjects and helping to demystify a culture that was often stereotyped as a form of "low life." Danny Lyon: The Bikeriders featured fifty photographs, all recent gifts to the Museum from Ernest Pomerantz and Marie Brenner.

TX 13: Spotlight on Texas Artists in the Contemporary Collection

September 5, 2013 – November 9, 2014 Contemporary Galleries Curator: David Rubin

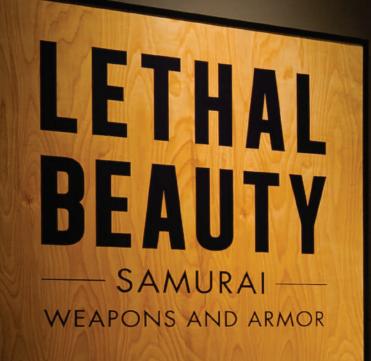

In recognition of the 2013 Texas Biennial, the Museum highlighted works by twenty-five Texas artists in the Contemporary Galleries, including Terry Allen, Albert Alvarez, Susan Budge, Raul Castellanos, Danville Chadbourne, Michael Ray Charles, James Cobb, James Drake, Jorge Garza, Adan Hernandez, Luis Jimenez, Marilyn Lanfear, Ken Little, Alberto Mijangos, Franco Mondini-Ruiz, Katie Pell, Mario Perez, Chuck Ramirez, Dario Robleto, Angel Rodriguez-Diaz, Ed Saavedra, Gary Schafter, Henry Stein, James Surls, Vincent Valdez, and Lloyd Walsh.

Lethal Beauty: Samurai Weapons and Armor ► September 28, 2013 – January 5, 2014 Cowden Gallery Project Director: John Johnston

Samurai, which literally means "those who serve," were a class of warrior in traditional Japan, active from the twelfth to nineteenth centuries. Their moral code, which stressed loyalty, honor, and mastery of martial arts, was paired with the cultivation of aesthetic appreciation. Lethal Beauty contrasted the deadliness of samurai weapons and the artistic beauty with which they are imbued. The seventy-five objects in the exhibition included five full sets of armor, masks and helmets, long and short swords, daggers, and a brilliantly painted pair of folding screens illustrating the famous warrior epic Tale of Heike. Lethal Beauty was curated by Dr. Andreas Marks, Minneapolis Institute of Arts, Collection of the Clark Center, and the exhibition tour organized by International Arts & Artists, Washington, DC.

The exhibitions Luminous Impressions and Entombed Treasures are available to travel to other institutions.

NEW ACQUISITIONS

The Museum's collection continues to grow in depth, reach, and quality, thanks to the generosity of private donors and income from endowed funds. During this fiscal year, the San Antonio Museum of Art added 406 new works to its collections.

By sharing our holdings, we take an active part in the international museum community and extend our collection's reputation. Similarly, the Museum brings the world to our city, borrowing important works of art that inform and enrich the lives of our visitors. Here are highlights of this vital exchange.

EDUCATION

THE MUSEUM IS A CLASSROOM AND IT'S FREE!

With a collection that spans the globe and 5,000 years of history, the San Antonio Museum of Art is a resource for students of all ages. We served over 11,000 students, a 35% increase over the previous year.

All Pre-K through 12th-grade programs are:

- Free
- Available in Spanish
- Offer reimbursement for bus transportation costs
- Align with core curriculum for subjects including social studies, math, science, history, economics, fine arts, and language arts

Art makes you smart

A recent study conducted by Jay P. Greene, a professor of education reform at the University of Arkansas, demonstrated a causal relationship between a visit to an art museum on a field trip and stronger critical thinking skills, higher levels of social tolerance, and greater historical empathy.

We're not your average field trip

Our innovative School Partnership Program offers custom tours and related art activities. Every student attends a different program each year over their elementary school careers, covering topics such as "Math and Art: Applied Geometry" and "Art Opinions and Descriptive Writing." Teachers and museum educators collaborate to devise tours that enrich classroom learning. Students learn to use primary sources, conduct research, and think critically and creatively.

Last year we expanded our School Partnership Program from two schools to seven, more than tripling our reach to 3,500 students. The program targets underserved schools in low-income areas. As of August 2013, we have partnerships with Briscoe Elementary, Austin Academy, Bowden Elementary, Columbia Heights Elementary, Cable Elementary, and Idea Charter's South Flores and Carver campuses.

"They were really interested and made great connections. Some of my quieter students participated more than they usually do."

Program Highlights

The Museum offered something for everyone with over 450 programs—a 47% increase over the previous year.

• Partnered with the Symposium Great Books Institute for the Great Books Seminar, a series of in-gallery Socratic seminars pairing the Museum's special exhibitions and permanent collections with readings in art theory, art history, and literature.

• Explored new areas of programming with the Lethal Beauty: Samurai Weapons and Armor exhibition: Japanese cooking classes, ikebana lessons, printmaking workshops, and showings of four Akira Kurosawa films.

• Collaborated with Palo Alto College to offer an Art History I course taught exclusively at the Museum. Students engaged through problem-based learning activities, docent-led tours, behind-the-scenes visits, and gallery talks.

• Partnered with organizations such as the Institute of Texan Cultures, Morgan's Wonderland, San Antonio Missions National Historical Park, Muslim Cultural Heritage Society, Artpace, and San Antonio Potters Guild.

• Added new family programs including Family Flicks, free outdoor films; Playdates, art through cultural folktales and art-making for preschoolers; and Art Crawl, tours for caregivers and babies.

• Featured education spaces with activities for children and adults during the Museum's three major exhibitions to create context and build higher-order thinking skills.

• Provided 39 financial scholarships, a record number, to the Museum's summer art camps for students across San Antonio.

• Expanded the Traveling Trunk program to include Early Childhood Trunks for preschool classrooms, supporting arts-based teaching about colors, shapes, textures, counting, opposites, and more.

• Brought a new audience to the Museum with specially designed workshops for homeschoolers.

MEMBERS & DONORS

With the generous and continuing support of individuals, corporations, and foundations, the San Antonio Museum of Art cares for and expands its collections, presents an ambitious schedule of exhibitions, maintains its galleries, and offers educational and visitor services that bring art to life for our broad community.

Essential support comes from Museum membership and its Friends of the Collections, gifts to our Annual Fund, gifts in honor or memory, planned giving and bequests, and exhibition sponsorships. Each gift is greatly appreciated.

THE BUSINESS OF THE MUSEUM

The San Antonio Museum of Art is growing! We expanded quickly during the past two years—more staff, more exhibitions, more educational programming, more visitors! The change is thrilling, and it comes with many opportunities. Our numbers are positive in every way.

The Museum's balance sheet is healthy: our assets are growing and we have no long-term debt. In FY 2013, we had an increase of $6.5 million in total net assets. Through contributions and investment gains, our endowment has grown 9.7%.

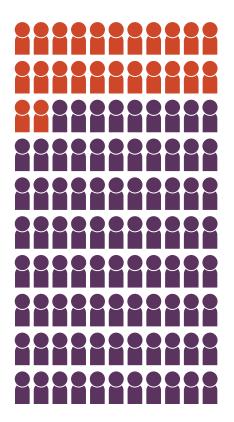

The Museum received twice as many gifts in 2013 as 2012, both in number of gifts and total dollars given. Our membership revenue increased by 10.7%, and membership numbers increased by 52%. Admissions revenue increased by 29.3%, and we had 24,000 more visitors than in the last fiscal year.

Looking back on the past fiscal year propels us to look forward. We are meeting the challenges of our growth. Our primary business focus is to monitor our performance and goals, to continue to support our core operations, and to increase our resources to secure the Museum's future. Ongoing investment in staff, exhibitions, and programming will ensure an exciting future for the San Antonio Museum of Art and our visitors.
