

RISK DISCLOSURE

last modified March 19, 2025

1. General Provisions

1.1. This Risk Disclosure (hereinafter, the “Disclosure”) aims to inform Users of the specific characteristics and risks associated with trading on financial markets, including cryptocurrency markets, through the FoxTrade Platform (hereinafter, the “Platform”).

1.2. Trading digital assets, stocks, futures, currency pairs, and other financial instruments involves a high degree of risk. This Disclosure does not enumerate all possible risks.

2. Cryptocurrency and Other Markets

2.1. The cryptocurrency market is highly volatile, often under-regulated, and susceptible to abrupt price fluctuations.

2.2. Users should understand that any investments in digital assets can result in the total loss of invested capital.

3. Technological Risks

3.1. Using the Platform requires an internet connection and may be subject to outages due to technical malfunctions (software or hardware errors).

3.2. The Company cannot guarantee uninterrupted operation of the Platform and is not liable for losses arising from equipment failures, software malfunctions, or communication disruptions.

4. Regulatory Risks

4.1. The regulation of cryptocurrency and other financial instruments differs significantly across jurisdictions.

4.2. The User must independently review the laws of their country and assess the legality and potential consequences of using the Platform.

5. Trading Decision Risks

5.1. The FoxTrade Platform and the Smart Asset Manager (SAM) module do not provide financial or investment advice. All decisions on opening or closing positions are made independently by the User.

5.2. Historical backtesting results or data analyses do not guarantee similar outcomes in the future.

6. Disclaimers and Liability

6.1. The Company makes no guarantees regarding any particular returns or profitability when using the Platform and assumes no liability for any losses or lost profits arising from the use of trading strategies, algorithms, or recommendations.

6.2. The User assumes all risks associated with trading, including the potential loss of capital.

7. Final Provisions

7.1. This Disclosure is an integral part of the Public Offer and other related Company documents.

7.2. The Company recommends that Users consult independent professional advisers for risk assessment and for developing their own trading strategies.
