Kim Jones

Growing up in Houston, Mrs. Kim found her love for cooking at the early age of 10 years old. She began helping her father prepare food for the family and her love and passion for cooking and baking remains until this day.

In 2004, Mrs. Kim gained experience working at a cafeteria, and then in 2011 Mrs. Kim started her own catering business during her personal time. It is her dream to own her very own restaurant!
