

Meet Your Center Administration Team

Robin Detenbeck,
Center Director

Background

I began with Bright Horizons in May 2003. I started my journey as a Preschool Teacher. I was an Assistant Director for 7 years and then promoted to a Center Director. I have been the Center Director at the Bright Horizons ELC at 1505 since 2016.

Favorite Children's Book

The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstein

I love the childcare industry because:

I enjoy growing our teachers to help teach little minds and building parent partnerships. Hearing children laughing is my favorite sound!

Juanita Cleveland,
Educational Coordinator

Background

I began my journey with Bright Horizons in 2003. I began as an Assistant Teacher and through Bright Horizons Succession Planning Program, I was promoted as an Education Coordinator in 2014.

Favorite Children's Book

Yesterday, I had the Blues Jeron Ashford Frame

I love the childcare industry because:

I love the impact that I make not only on children, but on Early Childhood Educators. The innocence and honesty of young children always leaves a smile on my face.
