Schedule D, Part III, Line 1 - In conformity with industry practice, museum collection items purchased or donated are not recorded as assets in the accompanying statement of financial position. Even though not reflected in the statement of financial position, the Museum's collections represent one of its most valuable assets. Purchases of collection items are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets or as decreases in temporarily restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items were restricted by donors. It is the Museum's policy not to sell collection items. Any proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The Museum employs full-time employees to manage the stewardship of the collection items in accordance with the collection and acquisition policy and under the direction of the executive director and board of directors. Each item is numbered and catalogued in a continuous inventory tracking system.

Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 - The museum's collection is encyclopedic in that it spans timeframes from antiquities to modern art, and includes art from a wide variety of categories including Egyptian, Greek, Italian, Latin American, American, Aboriginal, Islamic, and Asian.
