Gustavo Dudamel, conductor

Lang Lang, piano

Liv Redpath, soprano

John ADAMS Tromba Lontana

GRIEG Piano Concerto

GRIEG Peer Gynt selections

John ADAMS Short Ride in a Fast Machine

The great Lang Lang joins Dudamel and the orchestra to invigorate the Romantic drama of Edvard Grieg's unforgettable Piano Concerto. Then favorite selections from the equally memorable music that Grieg wrote for Peer Gynt come to life, from the glowing evocation of morning to the eerie "In the Hall of the Mountain King." To begin and end, two short and delightful classics by John Adams.

LA Phil Gala Packages available in late spring. For more information, please contact Special Events at gala@laphil.org or 213 972 3051. Concert-only tickets will be available to subscribers in July.

America: The Stories we Tell

History's Persistent Voice

Julia Bullock, soprano

Julia Bullock gives an expanded version of her recital program "History's Persistent Voice," which highlights the words, work, and experiences of Black American artists. The voices of those enslaved through the 1860s are placed alongside those who lived through years of sharecropping and Jim Crow as well as currently incarcerated individuals. This mixed-media concert features all-new commissioned music by an esteemed roster of American women of color including Rhiannon Giddens, Allison Loggins-Hull, Tania León, Jessie Montgomery, Camille Norment, Cécile McLorin Salvant, and Pamela Z.

Programs, artists and dates subject to change.
