Over There and Back Again: Hoosiers in World War I
A Beverly A. Martin Storytelling Event at the Franklin Branch

FRANKLIN, Ind. – You’re invited to “Over There and Back Again,” a Bev Martin Storytelling event at our Franklin Branch, Saturday, April 14, at 2:30 p.m.

It was called the Great War, the World War and the War to End All Wars. Sharon Kirk Clifton presents “Over There and Back Again,” a story about how two Hoosiers, Robert H. Tyndall and Ruth Wright, answered the call of duty for World War I, and then returned home after the war to become leaders in Indiana.

Sharon is a professional storyteller who is also passionate about writing, especially for children. She has published two middle-grade novels and is working on a third. She received the Frank Basile Emerging Stories Fellowship in 2004 for which she premiered Abigail Gray: Living Under the Drinking Gourd.

This Beverly A. Martin Storytelling Event is part of the Sharing Hoosier Histories Through Stories series sponsored by the Indiana Historical Society and Storytelling Arts of Indiana, Inc.

The Franklin Branch is located at 401 State Street Franklin IN 46131. For more information, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or mharvey@jcpln.org.
