Our classical season leaps into action as Gustavo Dudamel conducts an enchanting evening of beloved ballet scores selected to showcase some of the most celebrated stars of dance.

JUL 25 SHAHAM PLAYS JOHN WILLIAMS

Stéphane Denève, conductor
Gil Shaham, violin
John WILLIAMS Sound the Bells!
John WILLIAMS Violin Concerto
RESPIGHI Fountains of Rome
RESPIGHI Pines of Rome

Acclaimed soloist Gil Shaham performs the Violin Concerto (1976) by renowned film composer John Williams, who uses 20th-century harmonies similar to Bartók and Walton to create a powerful, emotional work. The evening culminates with the uplifting power and color of Respighi's Fountains and Pines.

AUG 8 ALL-MENDELSSOHN

Karina Canellakis, conductor
Martin Chalifour, violin
MENDELSSOHN
A Midsummer Night's Dream: Overture
Violin Concerto in E minor
Symphony No. 4, "Italian"

A remarkable young conductor makes her Bowl debut leading three of Mendelssohn's most appealing works, all acknowledged masterpieces. The LA Phil's Principal Concertmaster takes the spotlight for Mendelssohn's brilliant concerto.

AUG 22 THE PLANETS WITH DUDAMEL

Gustavo Dudamel, conductor
Pekka Kuusisto, violin
Women of the Los Angeles
Master Chorale
Grant Gershon, artistic director
Daníel BJARNASON Violin Concerto
(world premiere, LA Phil commission)
HOLST The Planets

Gustav Holst never imagined how popular and ubiquitous his colorful musical vision of the planets would become, but it will make for ideal listening under the night sky.

SEP 5 "NEW WORLD" SYMPHONY

Ken-David Masur, conductor
Inon Barnatan, piano
L. BOULANGER D'un matin de printemps
Alan FLETCHER Piano Concerto
(LA Phil commission)
DVORÁK Symphony No. 9,
"From the New World"

One of the most popular symphonies ever written, with its America-inspired melodies and atmosphere combining dramatic energy and quiet nostalgia, Dvořák's beloved "New World" Symphony reaffirms its reputation as a perennial favorite.

TU2 5 TUESDAY EVENINGS AT 8PM

JUL 18 BEETHOVEN'S NINTH WITH DUDAMEL

Issachah Savage, Ryan Speedo Green, soloists
Los Angeles Master Chorale
Grant Gershon, artistic director
COPLAND Fanfare for the Common Man
BEETHOVEN Symphony No. 9

Dudamel's all-consuming love of music drives him to invest every note with meaning and new life. Don't miss it when he leads Beethoven's epic Ninth Symphony, the first piece he performed as Music Director of the LA Phil.

AUG 1 MIRGA & LA MER

Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla, conductor
Beatrice Rana, piano
DEBUSSY Prelude to the Afternoon
of a Faun
TCHAIKOVSKY Piano Concerto No. 1
SIBELIUS Scene with Cranes and Valse triste
DEBUSSY La mer

What a thrill to hear Mirga bring out all the colors and life in La mer, the great Impressionist symphony and one of Debussy's supreme achievements!

AUG 15 RACHMANINOFF'S THIRD CONCERTO

Krzysztof Urbanski, conductor
Behzod Abduraimov, piano
RACHMANINOFF Piano Concerto No. 3
MUSSORGSKY Pictures at an Exhibition

Faced with the finger-bending pyrotechnics of his Third Concerto, even Rachmaninoff needed to practice up to pull it off. Enthusiastic audiences around the world have verified this astonishing virtuoso from Uzbekistan has it well in hand.

AUG 29 JOSHUA BELL & THE LA PHIL

Bramwell Tovey, conductor
Joshua Bell, violin
STRAVINSKY Fireworks
LALO Symphonie espagnole
STRAVINSKY Petrushka

It's always a treat to hear Joshua Bell at the Bowl, especially in such a melody-filled work as Symphonie espagnole. Tovey delights with two works by Stravinsky.

SEP 12 YO-YO MA PLAYS BACH

Yo-Yo Ma, cello
BACH The Six Cello Suites

This unprecedented solo recital (the Philharmonic has the night off) features timeless music for unaccompanied cello by J.S. Bach played by a consummate master. One musician, 18,000 spellbound fans.

Pacific Chorale

John Alexander, artistic director

VIVALDI
Violin Concerto in G major, Op. 4, No. 3
Stabat Mater
Violin Concerto in A minor, Op. 4, No. 4
Gloria

Audience favorite Nicholas McGegan leads a program of Vivaldi hits, including the magnificent Gloria and the heart-breaking Stabat Mater, featuring the richly emotive voice of countertenor Tim Mead.

AUG 24 DUDAMEL & MOZART'S REQUIEM

Gustavo Dudamel, conductor
Miah Persson, soprano
Christianne Stotijn, mezzo-soprano
David Portillo, tenor
John Relyea, bass

Los Angeles Master Chorale
Grant Gershon, artistic director

John ADAMS Harmonium
MOZART Requiem

Gustavo conducts a very special night of choral works, beginning with Adams' transporting settings of John Donne and Emily Dickinson. Then, the Requiem everybody knows and loves - which has inspired so many stories and speculation - yields its power and beauty. Not to be missed!

SEP 7 SINGIN' IN THE RAIN: FILM WITH ORCHESTRA

David Newman, conductor
Music by Nacio Herb Brown (songs)
and Arthur Freed

If you ever wanted to experience one of the greatest movie musicals of all time - starring Gene Kelly, Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds - while a live orchestra performs all that unforgettable music, your time has come!

TH2 5 THURSDAY EVENINGS AT 8PM

JUL 20 DUDAMEL CONDUCTS WAGNER

Gustavo Dudamel, conductor
Los Angeles Master Chorale

Stirring choral and instrumental selections from Wagner's mythic music dramas: Tannhäuser, The Flying Dutchman, and Die Meistersinger.

AUG 3 SOUND THE TRUMPET!

Vasily Petrenko, conductor
Alison Balsom, trumpet
STRAUSS Don Juan
HUMMEL Trumpet Concerto in E-flat
STRAUSS Also sprach Zarathustra

Hear the world's reigning trumpet queen playing Hummel's iconic concerto. The entire evening is built around the rich brass sounds so beloved by Strauss, concluding with the tone poem that will forever be linked to Stanley Kubrick's masterpiece, 2001, A Space Odyssey.

AUG 17 GERSHWIN UNDER THE STARS

Bramwell Tovey, conductor
Aaron Diehl, piano
GERSHWIN Strike Up The Band
GERSHWIN "I Got Rhythm" Variations
ELLINGTON Night Creature
GERSHWIN An American in Paris

The ever-charming Tovey leads an all-American program focused on the extraordinary music of George Gershwin. We're delighted to have jazz virtuoso Aaron Diehl as soloist for Gershwin's tricky Variations.

AUG 31 ALL-BEETHOVEN

Bramwell Tovey, conductor
Pierre-Laurent Aimard, piano
BEETHOVEN
Piano Concerto No. 1
Symphony No. 3, "Eroica"

It's virtually impossible to beat Beethoven at the Bowl. For this evening, the brilliant Frenchman Aimard dives into the resplendent First Concerto, which is followed by one of the most revolutionary and thrilling symphonies Beethoven ever wrote.

SEP 14 ALL-MOZART

Nicholas McGegan, conductor
Kristóf Baráti, violin
MOZART
Overture to Idomeneo
Violin Concerto No. 5
Symphony No. 41, "Jupiter"

The ever-enchancing Nicholas McGegan closes the classical season with miraculous Mozart. The program, which includes his last violin concerto and his final symphony, showcases the sublime achievement of Salzburg's favorite son.

LA PHIL IN THE COMMUNITY

The LA Phil has a long-standing commitment to the education of current and future generations of concert-goers. More than 150,000 benefit each year from our concerts for schools and families, in-school residencies, training for young composers, free neighborhood concerts, pre-concert lectures and more. YOLA (Youth Orchestra LA) - inspired by Gustavo Dudamel's artistic vision and experience in Venezuela's El Sistema - works with community partners to provide free instruments and high quality music instruction to children in underserved areas of Los Angeles.

Your ticket purchases and donations help to ensure the future of these programs and more. Details at LAPhil.com/Education

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Association thanks the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors for its valued cooperation in continuing to bring great music to the people of Los Angeles: Mark Ridley-Thomas, Second District and Chair; Hilda L. Solis, First District; Sheila Kuehl, Third District; Janice K. Hahn, Fourth District; Kathryn Barger, Fifth District.

The Music & Artistic Director Chair held by Gustavo Dudamel is endowed by a gift to the LA Phil from the Walt and Lilly Disney Foundation.

The Creative Chair for Jazz held by Herbie Hancock is endowed by a gift to the LA Phil from William Powers and Carolyn Powers.
