

Preschool & Kindergarten Prep Daily Schedule

The flow of day will fluctuate with each classroom's needs. This schedule is meant to be flexible and demonstrate a typical flow to the day. Examples here demonstrate a variety of classroom possibilities; of course, there are many others not listed. Learning and play experiences are infused into each daily experience, including lunch and rest time.

Time of Day	Experience
Morning	Arrival <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Welcome ▶ Communication ▶ Play is offered during the course of the entire day ▶ Classroom learning center exploration is offered during the course of the entire day
	Snack <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Refuel ▶ Conversation
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Clean up
	Morning Meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Small groups/learning center exploration/play (During small group time children will participate in a variety of language, math, science, art, movement and other experiences.) ▶ Project work ▶ Outdoor time ▶ Enrichment areas (In-class enrichments or as Enhanced Protocol allows.)
Lunch	Lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Self-help skills
	Transition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Prep for nap ▶ Reading ▶ Storytelling
	Nap/Rest
Afternoon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Quiet activities as children wake from rest such as writing, reading, journals, or exploring with math manipulatives
	Snack <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Refuel ▶ Conversation ▶ Classroom jobs
	Afternoon Reflection
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Small groups/learning center exploration/play (During small group time children will participate in a variety of language, math, science, art, movement and other experiences.) ▶ Project work ▶ Outdoor time ▶ Enrichment areas (In-class enrichments or as Enhanced Protocol allows.)