Special Rules & Regulations:

For all horses the horse's passport has to be shown at the show office. Take care that the passport is completely filled in including the drawings! All horses have to have a correct/valid vaccination history against influenza, every twelve month including the correct basic vaccination. Last vaccination not longer than six months ago. If in the original country of the horse a coggins test is needed, the horse must also have it at this event

Dogs are allowed on the showground but only on a leash!

The final time schedule and order of competitions will be available during the event in the show office. Cancellations or any changes of competitions are in the responsibility of the show manager. Late entries are possible. All competing horses have to be healthy and without any infectious diseases and for each horse a liability insurance is obligatory.

The Dressage competitions will be judged by three judges separately following the FEI rules. Whips in Dressage are allowed.

Competitors are allowed to compete in all levels with a guest license by the Austrian Federation. Foreign horses will get a special permit for competing by the Austrian Equestrian Federation organized for you by FAS free of charge.

Rules: ÖTO 2018, ECAHO Green Book 2018, FENA Westernreit-Reglement 2018, Vollblutaraber-Reglement ÖTO 2018. www.oeps.at, FEI 2018

ATTENTION: Show jumping & Pleasure Driving competitions will be cancelled if there are less than 6 entries at the deadline of nomination.

International ECAHO European Championships

The title Champion will be given for: Dressage, Western Pleasure, Trail, Reining, Show Jumping, Classic Pleasure, Traditional Arabian Riding, Ladies Side Saddle (western & classic), Pleasure Driving, Western All Around & Classic All Around.

For the European Champion title a minimum of three horses have to compete in the competition. If there are less horses, no Champion title will be given and the competition will become a normal one.

For the Championship: 1st place: a sash and trophy, 1st-3rd place: a Gold, Silver, Bronze medal, 1st-6th place: a rosette
All other competitions/classes: 1st – 6th place: a rosette

International ECAHO Austrian Championships

The title Champion will be given for: Western Pleasure, Trail, Reining, Dressage, Show Jumping, Classic Pleasure, Traditional Arabian Riding, Ladies Side Saddle (western & classic), Pleasure Driving.

For the title a minimum of three horses have to compete in the competition. If there are less horses, no Champion title will be given and the competition will become a normal one.

For the Championship: 1st place: a sash, 1st-3rd place: a Gold, Silver, Bronze medal, 1st-6th place: a rosette

International ECAHO Lower Austrian Championships

The title Champion will be given for: Western Pleasure, Trail, Reining, Dressage, Show Jumping, Classic Pleasure, Traditional Arabian Riding, Ladies Side Saddle (western & classic), Pleasure Driving.

For the title a minimum of three horses have to compete in the competition. If there are less horses, no Champion title will be given and the competition will become a normal one.

For the Championship: 1st place: a sash, 1st-3rd place: a Gold, Silver, Bronze medal, 1st-6th place: a rosette

This event is specific for WAHO accepted Arabians. Each rider is allowed to start a maximum of 3 horses in the Championship competitions except with only one horse in all Pleasure classes, Side saddle, Traditional Arabian and Horsemanship classes.

To help the competitor it is allowed that a helper/second rider warms up the horse. But no changing of riders is allowed at the Championship competitions. The rider/horse-combination stays the same during all Championship competitions including Type & Conformation.

The horse will win the title, earns the sash and the rosettes. The rider will earn the medal.

ATTENTION: Starting possibilities: N Novice + A Advanced, A + M Masters, this means the same horse can compete with a different rider in either N+A and another rider in A+M. The riders competing in Championship competitions can also compete with a different horse in N+A. These are not allowed to participate in Championship competitions.

The Show Office will take care of riders who want to compete with more than one horse concerning the starting order. There will be enough time between the starts, but no extra preparation time for the horses will be given.

The pleasure competitions will be split if there are more than 16 horses in a class. The duration of the qualifying go-rounds will be at the judges' discretion. The then 10 best horses from both go-round pleasures will compete again in the final round for the ribbon/title/qualification.

Dressage tests: up to L/M (possible with announcement). The rider has to bring his/her own speaker and let the show office know in time.

European Western All Around Champion & European Classic All Around Champion
All Master/M& E Ch Competitions count together, plus Type & Conformation. A minimum two different competitions and T & C obligatory.

Charity Fun Class for Light in the World - Children

"Fun Pleasure" on Saturday, July 28th, 2018 (last competition of this day)

All entry fees will be donated directly to Charity "Light in the World for eye surgeries of children in need".

1st-3rd placed horses will get an award.

Prize giving ceremonies: All riders placed in the medals have to participate correctly dressed with the horse under saddle at the final prize giving ceremonies. Those who are not present with the winning horse will lose their awards and the next placed horse will get into place. If a rider has more than one horse in the prize giving ceremony, a helper has to lead the saddled horse for the prize giving to give the rider the chance to be present on the horse.

Music for Freestyle Reining/Freestyle Dressage: possible on CD only! (no USB sticks), to be given to the show office after the arrival! Arrange a music test in time!
