

FARAI PILOTO

Automotive Design Sculptor

faraipiloto@aol.com

213 335 4312

Pasadena, CA

farai.piloto.myportfolio.com

Education

ArtCenter College of Design, Pasadena, California: 3.63 GPA, Graduating December 2021

Current Transportation Design major with a focus in physical and digital modeling.

Select models and work were featured in displays on campus and in the ArtCenter CMTEL Instagram page.

George Fox University, Newberg, Oregon: Bachelor of Arts, Magna Cum Laude 2015-2017

Graduated as a Studio Art major with a focus in sculptural techniques in Ceramics.

Served in the Worship Band and in the Associated Student Committee.

Took part in Serve Day community service annually.

Select work was featured in exhibitions.

Experience

Creative Digital Sculpting Intern, General Motors, Warren, Michigan: May 2021- August 2021

Collaborated with the Creative Design team to create and visualize design themes in 3D.

Worked to general engineering specifications.

Presented weekly to leadership.

Sales Associate, Blick Art Materials, Beaverton, Oregon: January 2018-July 2018

Informed and helped customers with their purchases.

Stocked Inventory.

Arts Educator, Chehalem Cultural Center, Newberg, Oregon: January 2017-July 2018

Instructed Studio Art subjects such as Drawing, Ceramics, Sculpture, and Glass.

Recycled and pugged clay to help keep a sustainable supply of clay in the studio.

Kept up with studio housekeeping such as cleaning and operating low firing electric kilns.

Skills

Alias modeling / Maya modeling / Rhino modeling / Solidworks modeling / Clay modeling / VRED visualization / Keyshot visualization / Unreal Engine visualization / Photoshop / Illustrator / traditional manual illustration with different mediums such as paint, pencil, charcoal, pastels, and watercolors / Shona language (Native) / English language (Second Native).

Interests

Music, art, science, nature, resistance training, cardiovascular training, winter sports.