At Home in Johnson County Concludes 2018 Program

Join Us for Our Heritage Revealed: Every Family Has a Story

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Johnson County Public Library’s At Home in Johnson County will conclude with a DNA reveal event. Our Heritage Revealed: Every Family Has a Story will take place at our White River Branch, Saturday, Nov. 10, at 2 p.m.

This special genealogy program will present the diverse ancestry of two well-known Johnson County Leaders, similar in style to the hit television series “Who Do You Think You Are?”

Johnson County Public Library is thrilled to welcome and reveal the family histories of Cherie Lowe (The Queen of Free) and Retired Major General R. Martin Umbarger (president of Umbarger Agribusiness and former Adjutant General of Indiana.)

JCPL staff and researchers from the Central Indiana DNA Interest Group will utilize interviews with participants as well as genealogy resources, including DNA testing, to uncover the family stories of these participants, and reveal the varied backgrounds that make up our Johnson County community.

For more information, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or mharvey@jcplin.org.

Cherie and Maj. Gen. Umbarger are both open to doing interviews. Cherie may be reached by phone 317-750-4190 or email cherie@queenoffree.net. Maj. Gen. Umbarger may be reached by phone 317-710-1325 or email Marty.umbarger@gmail.com.
