LOS ANGELES (FEBRUARY 4, 2014) – The Los Angeles Philharmonic Association today announced the Hollywood Bowl summer 2014 subscription series and single events for its 93rd season at the historic venue. The Hollywood Bowl – named “Best Major Outdoor Concert Venue” by Pollstar magazine for the ninth straight year – is one of the most renowned summer cultural venues in the world and has been the summer home of the Los Angeles Philharmonic since 1922.

The 2014 summer season spans 15 weeks, from June to September, and features a wide variety of the world’s greatest artists from all genres of music, with the Los Angeles Philharmonic at its core. New subscriptions for the Hollywood Bowl 2014 summer season are available starting today, and the Hollywood Bowl box office opens for single ticket sales on Sunday, May 4.

“The 2014 Hollywood Bowl summer season presents an extraordinary array of music in one of the world’s most iconic musical venues,” said Deborah Borda, LA Phil President and Chief Executive Officer. “The opening of the Hollywood Bowl each year marks the official start of summer for generations of music lovers across Los Angeles. This year is particularly special as Gustavo Dudamel celebrates his fifth season as Music Director at the venue where he made his U.S. debut. He returns with an all-Beethoven program; the third installation of his signature festival, Americas & Americans, with programs that showcase popular and classical music as well as film composers from North and South America; and of course, his summer appearances include opera – this time two of the great Italian operas - Cavalleria rusticana and Pagliacci. Esa-Pekka Salonen makes a rare visit, and we delight in the return of dear friends, including Joshua Bell, Yo-Yo Ma, Steve Martin and John Williams.

Anniversaries abound with the 15th year of the Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame Opening Night, the 20th anniversary of DreamWorks Animation and the 50th anniversary of The Beatles' first Hollywood Bowl performance. Herbie Hancock, entering his fifth season as Creative Chair for Jazz, and Thomas Wilkins, Principal Guest Conductor of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, also return, collaborating with some of the world's greatest musicians. The season begins when, under the Philharmonic umbrella for the first time, we present the Playboy Jazz Festival. There is something here for everyone, and we look forward to welcoming you back this summer."

LA PHIL MUSIC DIRECTOR GUSTAVO DUDAMEL'S HOLLYWOOD BOWL APPEARANCES

Holder of the Walt and Lilly Disney Chair, Music Director Gustavo Dudamel, in his fifth summer season under the stars, conducts an all-Beethoven evening; brings together music from both sides of the hemisphere in his signature festival, Americas & Americans; and leads a one-night-only double-bill of Italian opera, Mascagni's Cavalleria rusticana and Leoncavallo's Pagliacci.

The week of July 22, Dudamel is joined by a French trio - Renaud Capuçon, violin; Gautier Capuçon, cello; and Jean-Yves Thibaudet, piano - in an all-Beethoven program opening with the composer's Triple Concerto, and concluding with Symphony No. 5. This performance marks Gautier Capuçon's debut at the Hollywood Bowl.

Americas & Americans, a festival first presented during Dudamel's inaugural 2009/10 season at Walt Disney Concert Hall and revived at the Bowl in 2012, exemplifies his vision of one American culture across continents. To open his week, Dudamel conducts a special evening of song and dance, with details forthcoming. Turning an eye towards the influence of cinematic music, Americas & Americans continues with Noche De Cine, celebrating film composers from North and South America including Gustavo Santaolalla (Babel, Amores perros, The Motorcycle Diaries) and a suite from Dudamel's own score to Libertador. In a very special weekend program, Latin pop pioneer Gloria Estefan joins the festival with performances that serves up her hits and classics from the Cuban and American songbooks. The festival kicks off on July 23 with a program of Latin Jazz.

Gustavo continues to share his lifelong passion for opera with a special night of Italian masterpieces, Cavalleria rusticana and Pagliacci. The Los Angeles Philharmonic is joined by the Los Angeles Master Chorale and Los Angeles Children's Chorus, and stellar casts that include Stuart Neill, Michelle DeYoung, Julianna Di Giacomo, Christopher Maltman, Tamara Mumford and Susan Bickley.

CLASSICAL TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS LOS ANGELES PHILHARMONIC, 8 PM

The Los Angeles Philharmonic performs 10 weeks of exceptional classical programs during the Hollywood Bowl's Tuesdays and Thursdays series featuring the world's biggest classical stars.

- The LA Phil's summer classical season opens with superstar violinist Joshua Bell displaying his virtuosity and collaborative skills in solo concerto, chamber music and more, with help from some of his special friends. The program, led by the wry and witty Bowl favorite Bramwell Tovey, includes Ravel's Tzigane and Stravinsky's Firebird Suite. (July 8)
- Tovey continues the first week of the LA Phil classical season by bringing 20th-century favorites from Bernstein and Gershwin, acting as both conductor and pianist for Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue. Broadway bombshell, singer and actress Megan Hilty (Smash, Wicked) sings favorite Gershwin tunes. (July 10)
- Making a special visit to the Hollywood Bowl, virtuosic pianist Yefim Bronfman performs one of his signature pieces, Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1, led by close collaborator and LA Phil Conductor Laureate Esa-Pekka Salonen. (July 15)
- In an evening of firsts, the talented Yuja Wang plays the first piano concertos of both Shostakovich and Prokofiev for the first time in a single evening. Esa-Pekka Salonen, continuing his week at the Bowl, takes the theme further by leading the orchestra in the first symphonies of both composers. (July 17)
- A blockbuster French trio – brothers Renaud and Gautier Capuçon (violin and cello) with pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet – joins Music Director Gustavo Dudamel for an evening of Beethoven, concluding with the composer's famous Symphony No. 5. (July 22 & 24)

- Gustavo Dudamel leads the LA Phil and special guests in an exciting evening that brings together symphonic music and contemporary sounds from all the Americas in this Americas & Americans concert. (July 29)
- The evening's program, part of Americas & Americans, celebrates film composers from North and South America and features film clips from a range of composers including Argentinean Gustavo Santaolalla (Babel, Amores perros, The Motorcycle Diaries), as well as a suite from Dudamel's score to Libertador. (July 31)
- The evening sparkles with the instrumental brilliance of rising stars guitarist Miloš Karadaglić and trumpeter Alison Balsom in zesty Spanish solos, as well as a special set together, surrounded by colorful orchestral dances. Joshua Weilerstein conducts. (August 5)
- Passionate, inventive violinist Hilary Hahn delves into Brahms' momentous Double Concerto partnered with LA Phil Principal Cellist Robert deMaïne. Sensational young Lithuanian conductor Mirga Grazinyte-Tyla - who made her Walt Disney Concert Hall debut in January 2013 - makes her Bowl debut with Mahler's "Titan" Symphony. (August 7)
- Hollywood Bowl favorite Leonard Slatkin returns with an all-Russian program featuring Rimsky-Korsakov's dazzling and colorful Scheherazade, which perfectly captures four exotic tales of the Arabian nights. Soloist Gil Shaham performs Prokofiev's Violin Concerto No. 2 in a program that also includes Glinka's Ruslan and Ludmilla Overture. (August 12)
- Legends and masters Yo-Yo Ma and Leonard Slatkin join for an unforgettable evening of music-making that includes Elgar's Cello Concerto. (August 14)
- Nicholas McGegan brings rain, sun and storm to the Bowl as LA Phil Principal Concertmaster Martin Chalifour plays Vivaldi's Four Seasons juxtaposed with Piazzolla's tango-flavored Four Seasons of Buenos Aires, topped by Handel's glorious Water Music. (August 19)

- Nicholas McGegan's evening of Mozart includes a mixture of the prolific composer's mature works, as well as his Piano Concerto No. 22, performed by Inon Barnatan, and concludes with his "Haffner" Symphony. (August 21)
- Beethoven's ultimate piano concerto, the regal and uplifting Fifth, resounds under the night sky as irrepressible French conductor Stéphane Denève graces the Bowl stage with a program featuring Canadian pianist Marc-André Hamelin. Mussorgsky's vivid Pictures at an Exhibition caps the evening. (August 26 & 28)
- The autumnal glow of Mozart's Concerto, featuring clarinet wizard Kari Kriikku, is contrasted with Mendelssohn's quicksilver visions, for an enchanted evening at the Bowl under the baton of Ludovic Morlot. (September 2)
- Wide-open American vistas meet the magical world of fairy tales in a program featuring the Hollywood Bowl debut of LA's own Simone Porter, a violinist currently studying at the Colburn School. Conductor Ludovic Morlot leads the evening, which culminates in a vivid new fireworks display. (September 4)
- This performance of Holst's Planets is designed to transport the audience to another realm: the evocative music will be accompanied by HD images from NASA and JPL rovers and satellites, as well as computer-generated graphics of the Mars landing and more. The program opens with the U.S. premiere of Mark-Anthony's Turnage's LA Phil-commissioned Concerto for Drum Kit and Orchestra, performed by Peter Erskine and led by Bramwell Tovey. (September 9)
- Juanjo Mena closes the Bowl's classical season with Beethoven's celebration of life and brotherhood, the Symphony No. 9, featuring the magnificent voices of the Los Angeles Master Chorale. (September 11)

WEEKEND SPECTACULARS
FRIDAYS AND SATURDAYS, 8 PM

The Hollywood Bowl's Weekend Spectaculars series offers audiences the quintessential summer concert-going experience.

- Chris Botti * Chris Isaak (July 11/12)

Los Angeles Philharmonic

Bramwell Tovey, conductor

These two suave and sophisticated stars share the stage with the Los Angeles Philharmonic for a romantic evening of beautiful ballads and enchanting melodies. After performances from both artists, they will collaborate for the first time ever – the lush tones of Chris Botti along with the tenderhearted crooning of Chris Isaak, a perfect mix for a very special summer evening.

- DreamWorks Animation in Concert – Celebrating 20 Years (July 18/19)

SUMMERSOUNDS: World Music for Kids

Festival of Music and Art at the Hollywood Bowl

The Hollywood Bowl celebrates its 47th year of presenting one of the most popular world music festivals for kids in Southern California, SummerSounds. The 4-week festival of music and art for children ages 3 to 11 takes place weekday mornings Monday July 7, 2014, through Friday, August 1, 2014. SummerSounds explores world music through creative fun-filled programs, introducing music and art from a different dynamic culture each week and engaging families in an interactive and inspiring story-driven concert experience. Performances are at 10 AM and 11:15 AM each day, and the Fine Arts Workshop offers culturally-influenced arts and crafts for children before or after performances.

New easy ordering, now get arts and music in one ticket. $12 per ticket if purchased as a package. $15 when purchasing individual events.

For a brochure or more details, call the LA Phil Education Department at 213.972.8082.

PARK & RIDE AND SHUTTLE SERVICE

Leave the car behind as well as the traffic with these two convenient and affordable transportation services offered by the Bowl. Park & Ride ($6-$10) service will be available from 14 convenient locations in the Southland during the Hollywood Bowl 2014 season. Shuttle lots ($5) offer convenient parking at four close-to-the-Bowl locations.

THE BOWL WALK

Developed as part of the renovations in the 2004 Hollywood Bowl Shell Project, The Bowl Walk is a 10-station exhibit around the grounds of the Hollywood Bowl, a Los Angeles County Park, which beckons visitors to view the venue outside and around the theater. The exhibit features visual displays throughout the park, presenting information on the cultural events, history and architecture of the legendary natural amphitheater. The Walk begins at the entrance of the Bowl (on Peppertree Lane) and concludes inside the theater on the Fourth Promenade at the top of the hill.

A map of the Bowl Walk can be found at the Hollywood Bowl Museum or <http://www.hollywoodbowl.com/visit/hollywood-bowl-museum/bowl-walk>

Ten photographic displays along the pedestrian walkways guide visitors through the park: The Muse of Music, Peppertree Lane, Pop & Rock at the Hollywood Bowl, Great Performances, The Shell, The Amphitheater, The Cahuenga Pass Treasure, Flora & Fauna of the Hollywood Bowl, Picnics & Fireworks, and The View from the Fourth Prom. An accessible sign fixed in the plaza area, near the Box Office and The Bowl Store, includes Walk information for patrons with disabilities. The exhibit design is by Hodgetts+Fung. The Bowl Walk was generously funded by California State Parks Bond Act of 2000 through the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.

EDMUND D. EDELMAN HOLLYWOOD BOWL MUSEUM

The Edmund D. Edelman Hollywood Bowl Museum, located on the grounds of the 88-acre county park, provides a living history of the world-famous venue through a permanent multimedia presentation and themed exhibits.

LIVE FROM THE BOWL!

Continuing for the 2014 Hollywood Bowl summer season is "Live From The Bowl!" an exhibit of films, videos and recordings of live concerts at the Hollywood Bowl, and the changing media technology that has developed and altered dramatically during the Hollywood Bowl's 92-year history. From an early Victor "talking machine" of the 1920s to a hi-fi component system of the 60s, live recordings and videos are displayed in individual environments, in the style of each era, such as:

- A 1920s-style ladies dressing room features the very first commercial recording ever made of a symphony orchestra outdoors - the 1928 RCA Victor album with Eugene Goossens conducting the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra (made up of members of the Los Angeles Philharmonic). Selections from the album play on a 1926 Victor "Bluebird" Victrola.
- To represent the dozens of concerts that have been broadcast live from the Bowl - including classical concerts, benefits, and memorials - a 1930s-era parlor features a 1936 Philco "tombstone" radio playing Fred Astaire's "They Can't Take That Away From Me," from a CBS broadcast live from the Bowl.
- The first national television broadcast from the Hollywood Bowl is represented by an RCA KCS47 black & white TV playing a clip of The Colgate Comedy Hour (1954).
- For the 1960s, the "Mad Men" era is demonstrated by a sophisticated bachelor pad complete with a high fidelity component system - turntable, amps, pre-amps, woofers and tweeters - all playing an LP of the Hollywood Bowl Symphony Orchestra.
- A teenage bedroom of the 1970-80s features clips from The Brady Bunch and Monty Python at the Hollywood Bowl, as well as audio from popular artists such as Miles Davis and Pink Floyd.
- The modern-day digital age brought many live-concert DVD releases, some of which are featured in the exhibit, including Van Morrison, Aerosmith, DJ Shadow & Cut Chemist, Mariachi USA, the Korean Festival, and the webcast of Gustavo Dudamel's 2009 welcome as Music Director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Bienvenido Gustavo.

BEATLES AT THE BOWL

To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Beatles' first performance at the Hollywood Bowl, the Hollywood Bowl Museum will have a special "Beatles at the Bowl" exhibit on the 2nd floor featuring original photographs of the Fab Four at the Bowl, film footage, and memorabilia.

MUSIC FOR EVERYONE

Taking its cue from a Bowl slogan from the 1950s, the main floor permanent exhibit at the Hollywood Bowl Museum is called "Hollywood Bowl: Music For Everyone." This exhibit is organized into sections on dance; pop, rock, jazz and world music; symphonic music and opera; architecture and history of the Bowl; and the Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame. Video screens are an integral part of the exhibit, featuring hundreds of still photos and extensive film footage.

HALL OF FAME

The Museum is also home to the Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame. Visitors can watch videos of all the inductees including John Williams, Garth Brooks, Stevie Wonder, Brian Wilson, Henry Mancini, Sarah Chang, Bernadette Peters, Frank Sinatra, and many more.

Summer hours (June 22 - September 29): Tuesday - Saturday, 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM and Sundays, 4:00 PM to 7:30 PM; Off-season hours (September 30 - June 21): Tuesday - Friday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM; Saturdays by appointment; Closed Thanksgiving Day,

Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Admission is free. For more information, call the Edmund D. Edelman Hollywood Bowl Museum at 323.850.2058 or visit <http://www.hollywoodbowl.com/visit/museum.cfm>.

PATINA RESTAURANT GROUP CELEBRATES 15 YEARS AS EXCLUSIVE RESTAURATEUR OF THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL

From hot dogs to hamachi, popcorn to the popping of Champagne corks, there is a wide array of inviting dining options at the Hollywood Bowl, all provided by acclaimed Chef and Founder Joachim Splichal's Patina Restaurant Group. Widely acknowledged as a major contributing force behind Los Angeles' growth into one of the world's premier dining capitals and avid supporter of the arts as demonstrated by restaurant locations at many of the country's leading cultural centers, Joachim Splichal has been hailed as a Legendary Chef and Restaurateur of the Year by Bon Appétit. Emphasizing both a playful and highly refined culinary style, Splichal's techniques continue to transcend California cuisine by translating local ingredients into wildly innovative and elegant dishes. Bridging the gap between fine art and culinary art, Splichal's surprising and artful use of ingredients has earned him an international reputation as one of the most imaginative and talented chefs on the American culinary scene.

At the Hollywood Bowl, Patina Restaurant Group offers selections for all tastes and budgets: whether you choose to create your own picnic basket by selecting items such as freshly prepared rotisserie chicken, artisan cheeses and a variety of wine from Market Café, order gourmet dinners to-go from Staccato, savor freshly rolled sushi and dim sum at the Nishi Sushi Kitchen at Market West or enjoy a pre-performance sit-down dinner with spectacular views at Rooftop Grill, you are promised everything you need to create a special dining experience before the show begins. Back for the second season, The Wine Bar by Patina Restaurant Group will once again offer libation enthusiasts an al fresco full service lounge featuring an extensive curated wine menu, craft beers, soju cocktails, tapas-style small bites, and large style plates capturing the robust flavors of California produce. Nestled on the second floor with a bird's eye view of the Hollywood Bowl campus, music patrons are invited to arrive early and unwind with menu items designed to be shared with loved ones. In addition to the numerous culinary outposts, the renovated popcorn stand will also be back this season providing patrons with traditional and signature flavors for snacking during the performances. A number of pop-up concepts including Smokey Jo's BBQ and Tina Tacos show up throughout the year – many themed to your performance. In addition, a generous selection of fine white, red and sparkling wines, beers and soft refreshments are available.

As in previous years, you can pre-order your favorite family style platters, picnic baskets to share, three course chef menus, a la carte gourmet offerings, sushi and much more! Onsite events can also be arranged by the award-winning Patina Catering division at the Hollywood Bowl for patrons looking to begin an evening with an overture of cuisine that captures the essence of the historic music venue. Visit www.patinagroup.com/bowl for more details and to order beginning in April. Also – keep up to date with our new menu and online ordering launch by joining the Patina News & Notes e-list and by following Hollywood Bowl on Facebook and Twitter.

Based upon a unique vision of emphasizing fresh, seasonal ingredients and unparalleled service, Splichal opened his flagship restaurant - Los Angeles Times' four-starred and Michelin-starred Patina in 1989. Today, Patina Restaurant Group has grown to include an array of award-winning restaurants and cafés in California, Nevada, New York, New Jersey, and Florida. In addition, the world-class Patina Catering division brings Splichal's unrivaled cuisine and impeccable service to high-profile events at private locations and some of California's most recognizable landmarks, including Walt Disney Concert Hall and the Music Center (downtown LA), and the Segerstrom Center for the Arts (Costa Mesa).
