- About the Hollywood Bowl:

One of the largest natural amphitheaters in the world, with a seating capacity of over 17,000, the Hollywood Bowl is the summer home of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, which first performed at the venue in 1921. Today the Hollywood Bowl plays host to the finest artists from all genres of music, offering something for everyone. The LA Phil is committed to keeping the Hollywood Bowl accessible to every member of its Los Angeles community, offering $1 tickets for many of the venue's classical and jazz performances as well as a free ticket distribution program for social service organizations. For millions of music lovers across Southern California, the Hollywood Bowl is a summertime tradition.
- Canceled Ticket Information:
 - Los Angeles Philharmonic Association Events:
 - Ticketholders can donate their seats back to the LA Phil (100% tax deductible gift), receive credit for a future event (through the 2020/21 Walt Disney Concert Hall and Hollywood Bowl 2021 seasons), or receive a full refund. We strongly encourage those who can, to donate their tickets back to the organization. The value of donated tickets will also go towards a new $1 million challenge grant established by Jane and Michael Eisner.
 - Lease Events:
 - Any further show inquiries should be directed to the event organizer. Fans can also always check the status of their event on the Hollywood Bowl's website.
- Parking refund information:

- Same options as for canceled tickets. Also including pre-purchased Park and Ride and Shuttle passes.
- The Hollywood Bowl was last closed for 12 days in 1951. It has never been closed for an entire season.
