Free Films and Cultural Spotlights Celebrate Diversity At Home In Johnson County Returns with New Experiences

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Celebrate diversity in Johnson County with us this fall! Learn about Japan, China, India and Mexico during our second annual cultural spotlights and cultural film festival.

We will have crafts, tastings, presentations and more at each of the programs. All ages are welcome. "Visit" the following countries with us!

Japan - Sept. 15, 1-3 p.m. at the Clark Pleasant Branch

China - Sept. 22, 2-3:30 p.m. at the Trafalgar Branch

India - Sept. 29, 1-4 p.m. at the White River Branch

Mexico - Sept. 13, 2-3:30 p.m. at the Franklin Branch

Then, in October, JCPL is partnering with The Historic Artcraft Theatre to present a FREE film series celebrating these four countries.

Pre-show entertainment from our featured country begins at 6:30 p.m. with showtime at 7 p.m. No tickets are required for these movies. Join us for all the films in this series!

China - Oct. 2 - "Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon"

Mexico - Oct. 9 - "Alamar (to the Sea)"

Japan (family night) - Oct. 16 - "Kiki's Delivery Service"

India - Oct. 23 - "Bend It Like Beckham"

Follow us on Facebook for updates. The film series is made possible by thanks to the support the JCPL Foundation, The Historic Artcraft Theatre, Aspire Johnson County and a gift in memory of Evelyn Kocher.
