OPENING NIGHT AT THE BOWL

DONNA SUMMER, inductee

HOLLYWOOD BOWL ORCHESTRA

THOMAS WILKINS, conductor

THE CARPENTERS, inductee; accepted by RICHARD
CARPENTER

JEAN-YVES THIBAUDET, inductee

HERB ALPERT, presenter

Each year, in a glamorous star-studded evening, the Hollywood Bowl launches its official season with Opening Night at the Bowl, featuring the Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame concert. The 2010 inductees are Donna Summer, the Carpenters (accepted by Richard Carpenter), and Jean-Yves Thibaudet. Multiple Grammy-winning musician/composer/producer Herb Alpert will induct the Carpenters in this fun-filled gala, which culminates in a spectacular fireworks display. What a great way to enjoy all that the Bowl has to offer!

An exciting, vibrant performer and a cultural pop icon, Donna Summer first sold out the Bowl in 1979 and sold it out again as recently as 2008. She is one of a small group of artists to sell over 100 million records, including such hits as "Love to Love You, Baby," and "Bad Girls."

The Carpenters' relationship with the Hollywood Bowl dates back to 1966, when 16-year-old Karen and 19-year-old Richard won three awards at the venue's "Battle of the Bands," an event that launched their legendary career, during which they also sold over 100 million records.

World-renowned pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet first appeared on the Hollywood Bowl stage in 1989 and has performed at the venue on a regular basis ever since. In addition to recording over 40 classical albums, he has also ventured into jazz with CDs such as Conversations with Bill Evans and Reflections on Duke.

Proceeds benefit Music Matters, which supports LA Phil Education programs. The Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame is created and produced by Wayne Baruch and Charles F. Gayton.
