

YUKI MURAYAMA

illustrator + designer

yukimurayama.ill@gmail.com

yukimurayamaillustration.com

8355 Lincoln Ave.

Altadena CA 91001

626(203)3060

Profile

Hello! My name is Yuki Murayama. I'm a graphic designer and illustrator with an artistic background who possesses different illustration styles. Known for strengths in telling narratives and conceptual ideas throughout designs and illustrations for clients' needs.

Education

ArtCenter College of Design, Pasadena, CA — BFA, 2019 — Present

Skills

Photoshop, Indesign, Illustrator, After Effects, Google Creative Suite, and high motivation to learn new software!

Experiences

Illustrator and Writer, UC Riverside, CA — 2021-Present

Responsible for creating picture books with high-quality illustrations and comprehensive infographics for local children.

Developing conceptual narrative ideas of environmental issues and research in the Salton Sea area.

Collaborated with researchers to inform local people in the area of reliable scientific information.

Illustrator and Graphic Designer, Armory Center for the Arts, CA — 2020

Developing interactive solutions to engage local children in recreational activities in the local area.

Responsible for creating a scavenger hunting map of Lower Arroyo Park for the community arts program.

Collaborated with other artists to create a user-friendly design.

AWARDS

ArtCenter UG Scholarship

Phil Hays Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Samsung Scholarship

The Walt Reed Scholarship Award for Society of Illustrators Student Competition in 2021

Featured for Society of Illustrators Student
Competition in 2022

Communication Arts Long List in 2022

American Illustration Archived in 2022

Creative Quarterly 69 Runners Up in 2022

Society of Illustrators Annual 65 in 2022