Sign Up for a Library Card and Play Your Card Right

Receive Special Offers from Local Businesses Starting in September

Franklin, Ind. – September is “Library Card Sign Up Month.” A library card has always been the smartest card in your wallet, and now it’s the most valuable.

Show your valid Johnson County Public Library, Greenwood Public Library and Edinburgh Public Library card at 51 different businesses to receive special discounts and perks during the month of September.

These businesses include Coffeehouse Five, Craft + Cork, DJ’s Sweet Retreat, Half Price Books, Johnson County Museum of History, Madison Street Salvage, Mrs. Curl and many more! See a complete list of businesses participating in the program at pageafterpage.org/PlayYourCardRight/.

Did you know that your library card has fantastic benefits that you can celebrate all year long? Use your library card to check out books, music and movies, access the library’s digital resources, use the computers and internet, rent our meeting rooms, borrow parks passes and attend innovative programs.

Don’t have a library card? Visit Edinburgh Public Library, Greenwood Public Library or Johnson County Public Library to sign up for a library card today and take advantage of the rewards coming in September! For more information, please contact EPL at 812-526-5487, GPL at 317-881-1953 or JCPL at 317-738-2957.

Staff members from Edinburgh, Greenwood and Johnson County Public Libraries proudly display their library cards for Play Your Card Right!
