

Medisol Surface Disinfectant AND FOGGING HOCL SOLUTION

Hypochlorous acid - harnessing the power of the human immune system

Medisol is formulated from hypochlorous acid (HOCl), the same biocide produced by the human immune system to fight infection. Manufactured by leading British scientists, Medisol is leading the way in providing disinfection to a wide range of industries and when paired with our fogging machines provide complete peace of mind.

Unlike other disinfectants, Medisol has no hazardous ingredients, therefore requires no PPE to administer and enables disinfecting and air sanitising to occur whilst people are in the room.

Medisol also kills 99.9999% of bacteria in seconds and is over 100 times more effective than other disinfectants, meaning for every million bacteria only 1 will survive after using Medisol.

Medisol, is stable for 12 months and is ideal for use in the following environments:
