

"Virtual Conversations" and Webinars on RCIA – All Summer Long!

Liturgy Training Publications' Catechumeneon will continue to offer virtual conversations especially for those involved in Christian initiation (specifically, RCIA, but all sacramental coordinators would benefit!).

Join this exploration of how to best return to initiation ministry, with new ideas for reorienting practices. Click the links below to register:

The University of Notre Dame's McGrath Institute for Church Life is once again offering their online course on the RCIA, The RCIA: Can We Get the Rite Right? this summer.

The course will explore the Rite, using the stages of the Rite as the guide for the course, looking to the various stages of formation and also invite participants to reflect on ways his or her parish implements the Rite.

The course will run from June 15–July 17. A 50% discount is available to those who minister in the Archdiocese of Hartford!
