JCPL Participates in Read for the Record

Take Part in a Shared Reading Experience

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Join the world's largest shared reading experience as we participate in Jumpstart's Read for the Record. This year we'll read "Quackers" by Liz Wong.

Drop by any JCPL Branch anytime on October 19, read the book together as a family, make a craft based on the book and grab a sticker to show you read for the record.

Read for the Record is an annual reading celebration that highlights the importance of building early literacy and language skills for all children.

For more information, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or visit pageafterpage.org.

Jumpstart is an early education nonprofit organization fueled by the core belief that providing high-quality early learning opportunities to all children contributes to breaking the cycle of poverty. We provide language, literacy, and social-emotional programming for preschool children from under-resourced communities by recruiting and training college students and community members to serve in classrooms where the need is highest. Our volunteers help prepare children for kindergarten, and set them on a path for lifelong success.
