Two Star Wars Stormtrooper action figures are shown against a dark purple background. The figure on the left is smaller and is holding a thin stick with an orange heart-shaped balloon attached to it. The balloon has the word 'Cinemark' written on it in a stylized font. The figure on the right is larger and is holding the hand of the smaller figure. Both figures are in their standard white armor with black joints and details. The word 'Educate' is written in large, white, sans-serif font across the bottom of the image.
