

Emma Russell

3D Environmental Artist

Born with an innate desire to build and grow in community with others, a people-to-people person living in a creative industry. I have a strong understanding of the target market because I engage with people in a real and authentic way. Thrives in a community that works alongside each other, supporting each other through both success and failures. I give my all into every aspect of life and will be a valuable addition to your team.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Through the Christian Challenge Organization, participated in a five-day leadership training instructing me on how to lead the younger generation as well as the best ways to handle difficult conversations pertaining to sexual assault and violence.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Digital Design Internship

PACCAR, Kirkland, WA, 2021

At this national trucking company, I produced a variety of printed emailed and digital collateral products, primarily for their employee recognition program. These included a combination of creating templated event materials as well as individual event items.
