Friends of JCPL Seek New Volunteers

Volunteers to work Friends Used Book sales

FRANKLIN, Ind. – The Friends of Johnson County Public Library are currently seeking volunteers to help move boxes of books four times a year for the quarterly used book sales.

The Friends transport about a hundred boxes of books from the storage facility at our Franklin branch to each of the other branches for the Friends Used Book Sales. They are seeking volunteers to help load and unload the boxes before the sales.

Those interested in volunteering should contact the marketing department by phone at 317-738-2957 or email at marketingandcommunicationsdepartment@jcplin.org.

For more information, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or mharvey@jcplin.org visit pageafterpage.org. Learn more about the friends at pageafterpage.org/friends-of-the-library
