At Home in Johnson County Program Continues

Our Heritage Revealed: Every Family Has a Story

FRANKLIN, Ind. – At Home in Johnson County continues in 2018 with a genealogy program. Our Heritage Revealed: Every Family Has a Story will take place at our Franklin Branch Saturday, Feb. 17, at 2 p.m.

This special genealogy program will present the diverse ancestry of two Johnson County celebrities, similar in style to the hit television series “Who Do You Think You Are?”

Johnson County Public Library is pleased to announce the two celebrities that are participating in the event: Franklin Mayor, Steve Barnett and Executive Director - Leadership Johnson County Tandy Shuck.

“Ancestry has always intrigued me and participating in the Our Heritage Revealed event is a wonderful opportunity. I think the more we know the more we understand the hundreds of people that have lived and made it possible for us to be alive. I am a continuation of those people that have lived, loved, laughed and learned before me.”

JCPL staff and researchers from the Central Indiana DNA Interest Group will utilize genealogy resources, including DNA testing, to uncover the family stories of these participants, and reveal the varied backgrounds that make up our Johnson County community.

For more information about the program, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or mharvey@jcplin.org visit pageafterpage.org.

Tandy and Mayor Barnett are both open to doing interviews. Tandy may be reached by phone 317-738-8264 or email tshuck@franklincollege.edu. Mayor Barnett may be reached by phone 317-736-3602 or email sbarnett@franklin.in.gov
