

An Animator with a passion for bringing life into things behind the screen. Visually pleasing movement is what I can offer, whether it be for characters or otherwise. After 6+ years of technical and artistic experience that continues to improve day by day, the promise of quality is absolute.

Projects

Group Video Game Passion Project (2020 - 2022)

- Among a team of talented individuals, all working in their free time, I was one of the Third-Person Animators.

Game Taunt Animation for Community Submission (2023)

- Created 9 unique taunts animations, one for each playable character, and submitted for official addition into the game.

Plethora of Personal Animation Exercises (2016 - present)

- Over the years I've pushed myself with personal exercises to see how much quality can be achieved
