

APRIL 2019

What a Wonderful World

What's Happening This Month?

Hello Yellow Room Families! This month our theme is : What a Wonderful World. We will be learning all about our favorite authors, Easter, weather, and favorite artists.

The first week will be all about the weather, We will be learning about rain and storms and doing lots of fun science experiments!

Week 2 will be all about Dr. Seuss, Mo Willems, Laura Numeroff and Easter! We will be reading our favorite books by these authors and making fun crafts to go with the stories.

The third week will be all about Earth Day and Recycling! We will be learning about how we can take care of our Earth and different ways to keep our Earth clean!

Lastly, we will be learning about more of our favorite authors and artists. Some artists we will be exploring are Stan Lee and Elvis Presley!

This month will be filled with lots of learning and exploration of new topics!
